

Proclamation

Daryl Savage Human Relations Commission

WHEREAS, Daryl's unwavering dedication to public service is evidenced by her tenure on the Human Relations Commission (HRC) at different times for a total of 17 years, the longest commitment to the Commission of any individual on record, is truly commendable; and

WHEREAS, Daryl served as the Commission's liaison to the Palo Alto Police Department throughout her tenure on the HRC, demonstrating her ability to foster collaboration and understanding; and

WHEREAS, Daryl's exceptional service extended beyond her regular HRC duties, as she served as a community representative on numerous Palo Alto Police Department promotional panels over many years, providing a valuable perspective and engaging in thoughtful questioning that greatly benefited our community; and

WHEREAS, Daryl's insightful contributions and vast experience were instrumental to the HRC as they navigated vital and challenging issues such as police reforms, renter protections, hate crimes, and inclusion and belonging, among others; and

WHEREAS, Daryl served for several years on an ad hoc subcommittee for recommendations for the Human Services Emerging Needs grant program; and

WHEREAS, Daryl, along with other commissioners, conducted site visits of many of the agencies that receive HSRAP funding to better understand the services offered and hear about the agencies' successes and challenges.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Greer Stone, Mayor of the City of Palo Alto, on behalf of the City Council, do hereby proclaim appreciation for outstanding public service to Daryl Savage for her service and contributions rendered as a Human Relations Commissioner.
