Dear City council,

We are residents of Palo Alto and we are very concerned with the housing problems here and across the region. We support expanding the Geng Road site to allow more RV's there--especially in light of the fact that many RVs are being forced to move from the sides of El Camino due to the new bike lane.

Finding places for more RVs for people without homes is only a small temporary solution to the problem of limited affordable housing. But we should do whatever we can to make even a small difference as we address this problem locally, regionally, statewide and nationwide.

Sincerely,

Emily Young and Stephen Branz
