

Palo Alto Commons

The goal of this project is to add 14 new units in a similar style to the existing building. The additional units are proposed to be built mainly above the existing building with only a minor expansion to building footprint. The new units are to be of a similar size and layout to the existing units.